William H. Jackson, Esq.

Dear Bill:

I have sent you under separate cover one of the library copies of the [redacted] report of their spy trial. Please return it when you are through with it.

I should be interested to know whether you had a chance to talk to the Boss about any of the problems you mentioned to me and if so what his reaction might have been.

I am moving ahead on that matter in which you and [redacted] were particularly interested and expect to present some suggestions in the highest quarters in the near future. Let me know when you are next in Washington.

Sincerely,
